

15TH ANNUAL APNET GALA: CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE & EMPOWERING FUTURES

DR. DANA HARLEY

PROFESSOR IN THE COLLEGE OF ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES,
SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

Dr. Dana Harley is a national award-winning educator and Professor in the College of Allied Health Sciences, School of Social Work at the University of Cincinnati. Dr. Harley has over two decades of clinical practice experience as a child, adolescent, and family psychotherapist. She is a Licensed Independent Social Worker- Supervisor in the state of Ohio. Dr. Harley is an expert in photovoice, a community-based participatory action research method.

Dr. Harley's research examines hope and well-being among children, adolescents and their families. She has led numerous community engagement projects with youth in the Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky region and Cape Coast, Africa. Dr. Harley has numerous peer-reviewed publications and conference presentations. She has been the principal investigator or co-investigator on $10 million in grant funding.

Dr. Harley is the recipient of numerous awards at the national, regional, and local level.
